The Biggest Black Table Olive Producer of the World

PRODUCT CATALOG

ABOUT US

Marmarabirlik, officially known as the S.S. Marmara Olive Agricultural Sales Cooperatives Union, was established in 1954 by the mutual assistance and solidarity of regional olive producers. Its primary purpose is to cultivate the world's finest table black olives and deliver them to consumers under the best conditions.

The working area extends from the surroundings of Lake İznik in the east to the southern shores of the Marmara Sea, from where it takes its name, and reaches as far as Mürefte. Initially founded with the cooperation of the Gemlik, Mudanya, and Erdek cooperatives, Marmarabirlik later expanded to include the Orhangazi, İznik, Edincik, Mürefte, and Marmara Island Olive Agricultural Sales Cooperatives, transforming into a union with a total of 8 cooperative partnerships.

Over time, Marmarabirlik has grown into a global brand. With its annual capacity for olive procurement, processing, and sales, it is recognized as "The Biggest Black Table Olive Producer of the World."

MARMARABİRLİK

"name of the olive"

Marmarabirlik meets the demand for black and green table olives, olive oil, and olive paste for consumers in Turkey and other countries by purchasing an average of 50,000 tons of olives annually from its affiliated cooperative members.

At its modern facilities, located on a 550-acre area that includes its headquarters, Marmarabirlik packages 200 tons of olives daily and processes 220 tons of olives to produce olive oil.

Marmarabirlik, which has 30,000 active partners, has become the first cooperative to be included in the Turquality Brand Support Program as of 2019.
