KOHINOOR®
A LEGACY OF TRUST & TASTE

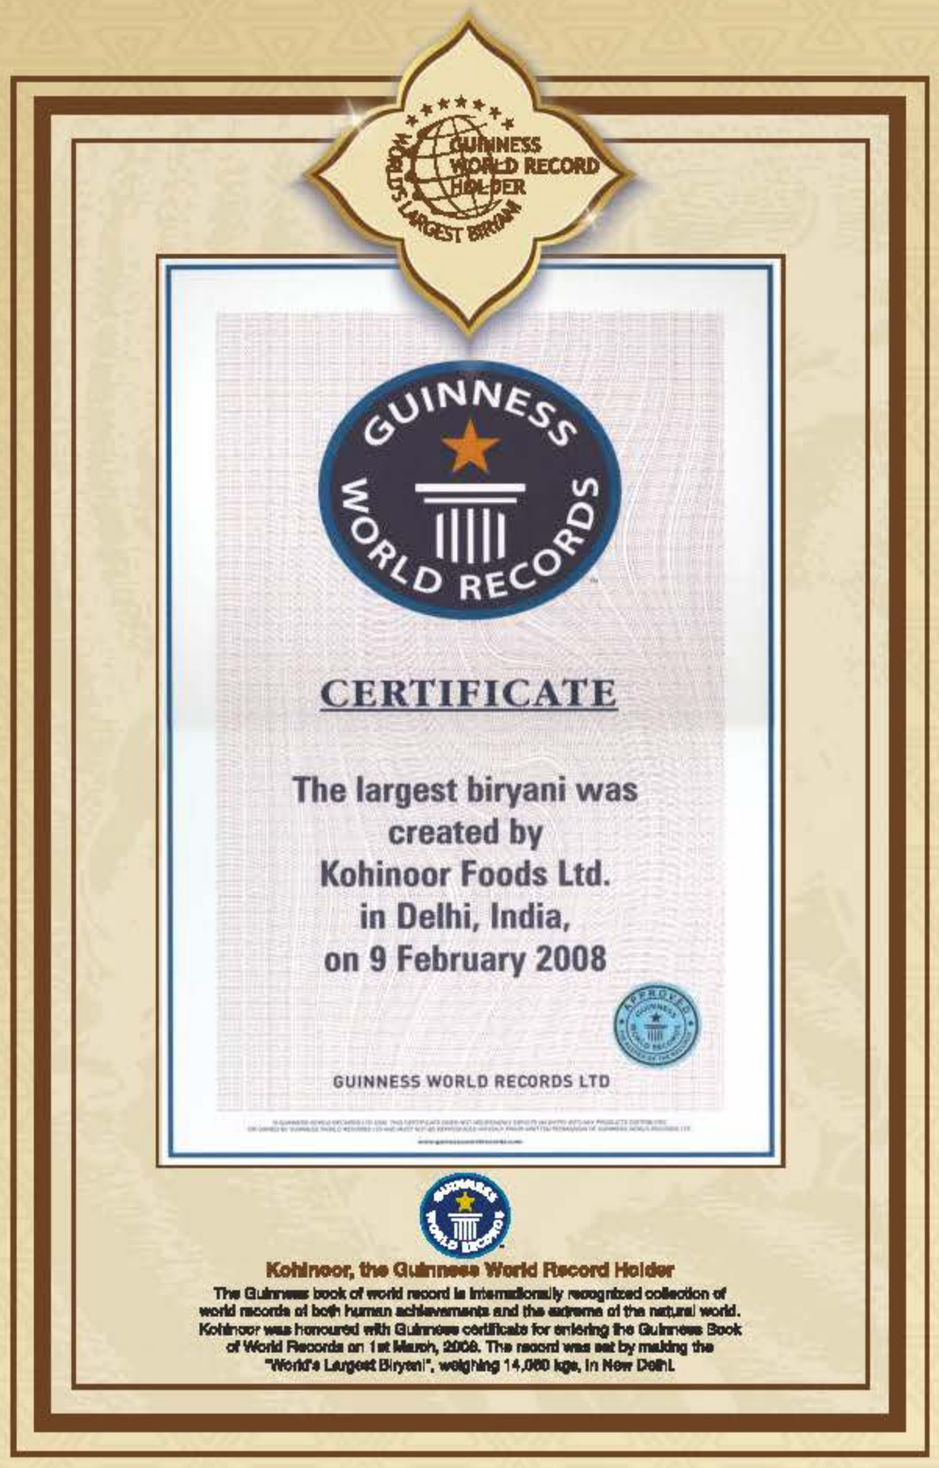

THE PROMOTERS

Kohinoor Foods Limited is an organisation started in 1989 and having business associates in over 60 countries. It attributes its success to the unwavering dedication of three brothers—Jugal Kishore Arora, Satnam Arora, and Gurnam Arora. Their collective vision has propelled the company to new heights, fostering a team spirit that transformed Kohinoor into a household name. Grounded in shared values, professionalism, and collaboration, the trio's leadership has driven the company's evolution into a modern global food giant.

The authentic Indian flavour of Kohinoor is savoured around the globe. Our success is evident in the fact that renowned retail chains such as Tesco and Sainsbury's in the UK, Costco, Walmart, Krogers, and Wholefoods in the USA, Woolworths, Coles, and Foodstuff in Australia and New Zealand, as well as Sri Murugan Stores in Singapore, Lulu, and Carrefour in the Middle East, and Rami Levi in Israel, proudly showcase our products on their store shelves.

With a commitment to quality that surpasses every possible benchmark and sets new standards, Kohinoor has established itself as a global brand with a diverse product portfolio covering every category in the food industry. This is precisely why Kohinoor Foods offers an extensive range of products, including Basmati Rice, Ready-to-Cook Sauces, Ready-to-Eat curries, Indian Savouries, Frozen Breads, Pure Ghee, Paneer Oil, and many more. The company stands as a beacon of excellence, enriching global palates with the

Kohinoor, the Guinness World Record Holder

The Guinness book of world record is internationally recognized collection of world records of both human achievements and the extreme of the natural world. Kohinoor was honoured with Guinness certificate for entering the Guinness Book of World Records on 1st March, 2008. The record was set by making the "World's Largest Biryani", weighing 14,000 kgs, in New Delhi.

KOHINOOR RICE MILLING FACILITY

What does it take to produce the most sought-after, world-class Basmati Rice? The answer is simple—World class rice processing plant, in-depth understanding of grains & astringent quality control system and that's Kohinoor Foods Ltd. having all about. Its decades long experience makes it better than the most.

Our rice factory at Murthal, Haryana, is one of the largest in the country with an unbelievable milling capacity of 50 metric tons per hour. Not only that, Plant is ISO 22000, GMP, HACCP, APEDA, USFDA registered and BRC certified. It happens to be the first rice plant to get approved under In-process Quality Control System (IPQC) by EIC (Export Inspection Council) govt. of India. Entire chain of processing is automated till final packing, the factory uses the world's best technologies and equipments for churning out rice grains that can only be described as impeccable. We have a research based QA driven scientific procurement system to ensure desired quality of the final product. To ensure the consistency of the agri produce in throughout the value chain, we have an extension network of experienced professionals which are involved in raw material procurement. Our extension program also takes care updated compliance requirements as per requirements of export market. In the entire value chain traceability of product is maintained and documented as per national & international requirements of standards.

In addition to it all, we offer the most versatile and flexible packaging, ranging from Jute bags to Laminated Pouches, Pet Jars, Paper bags, Tin containers, Jumbo Bags , PP bags & Tyvek Bags to Non-Woven Fabric Bags.

KOHINOOR FOOD FACTORY

To make certain that the authentic Indian taste is savoured by millions worldwide, Kohinoor Foods Ltd. conforms the highest standards of quality and food safety. Just the reason why our food plant is BRC, USFDA, SEDEX, Organic and GMO certified for its adherence to prescribed quality norms. In addition, the factory is also equipped with Kosher and Halal certification.

Along with that comes a world-class infrastructure backed by the best possible technology in thermal processing and freezing. Kohinoor Foods' technology partners include world leaders like Lagarde Autoclaves - France, Lee Pack filling & sealing machines South Korea, Ishida Japan X-ray, to name a few. Also worthy of mention here is Kohinoor Foods' Human Resource talent. With a relentless pursuit to excel the culinary chefs, R&D and new product development experts have created a host of innovative products. The company's range of microwaveable Healthy Rice Meals - Rice, Super Foods and Ancient Grains combination is a case in point. Not to forget the range of Cook-In-Sauces - 100% natural Indian curry sauces, another example of endless innovation at Kohinoor Foods Ltd.
