3 SOURCE PRODUCTS

· Provincial leading enterprise in agricultural industrialization in Jiangxi Province

· Excellent new agricultural management entities

For many years, we have been exploring the essence of our products and the original intention of development, tracing back to our hometown of Shicheng in Ganzhou, Jiangxi to explore the natural flavor. We have conducted deep processing research and development around local specialty crop products, and established multiple planting cooperatives in collaboration with local farmers. We have innovatively applied authentic Chinese ingredients to the tea industry, exploring the infinite possibilities of innovative charm of Chinese tea based on the source——

- Shicheng Lotus seed
- Taro
- Gannan navel orange

FROZEN JUICE

·Key flagship products and popular market trends
·Instant sterilization, fresh squeezed and frozen for freshness retention
·100% non concentrated reducing juice, double the freshness and flexibility

01

FROZEN JUICE

NFC stands for "Not From Concentrated" - non concentrated reduced fruit juice. NFC beverage is a fruit that is directly pasteurized after being juiced and processed in a low-temperature environment. Due to the short heating time during the processing of this freshly squeezed fruit juice, there is less nutritional loss and better preservation of the original flavor of the fresh fruit.
